

POWER AND PROSPERITY

TEXT: THE PROSPERING POWER OF LOVE

Author: Catherine Ponder

CHAPTER ONE

- I. The greatest human need is the need for love.
 - A. Man must have love in some form or he will perish.
 - 1. Personal love is expressed as kindness, tenderness, courtesy, affection, approval, appreciation and devotion to those in your family group.
 - 2. Impersonal love is the ability to get along with people without personal attachment or emotional involvement.
 - B. You have all the love you need for healing, prosperity and happy human relationships within yourself.
 - 1. Divine Love is one of your 12 spiritual faculties.
 - 2. It is released through your words, thoughts and actions.
- II. It is the mission of love to produce eternal good in your life.

CHAPTER TWO

- I. It is much easier to love your way through a problem than to battle your way through it.
 - A. Criticism brings forth unloving results.
 - 1. Criticism of others brings forth negative experiences in your life.
 - 2. Description of evil increases the potency of it.

- B. Emphasis on the good increases its manifestations.
- II. Your problem is your initiation in love.
 - A. It works in various ways to produce right results.
 - B. As you think more about love it will reveal to you its secrets.

CHAPTER THREE

- I. There are two ways that you can fast from negative attitudes.
 - A. They are the acts of release and forgiveness.
 - B. By using release and forgiveness, you break up, cross out, dissolve, and are freed forever from negative attitudes and memories.
- II. Emotional release is one of the highest forms of love.
 - A. Attachment leads to bondage, whereas the way of true love is to free that which you love.
 - B. You never lose that which is for your highest good.
 - C. Setting others free means setting yourself free.
- III. When you practice forgiveness you experience the healing power of love.
 - A. Resentment, condemnation, anger, and the desire to “get even” are things that rot your soul.
 - B. Resentment of someone attaches them to you.
- IV. Everyone is a child of God. Therefore, there is really nothing to forgive.
 - A. No one has ever really failed you, or disappointed you.
 - B. If they crossed your pathway it is because they needed your blessing.
 - C. No one can keep your good from you.

CHAPTER FOUR

- I. Resurrection brings alive your divinity within you.
 - A. Praise is your resurrecting power because it brings back into notice and uses the good within you.
 - B. When you express approval of yourself or others, you are glorifying that which is divine.
- II. You can also glorify your world by creating as much beauty and joy as possible.
 - A. Beauty has healing power. The body seems to respond to bright, light colors.
 - B. Exaltation is a magnet for good to hasten to you.

CHAPTER FIVE

- I. By writing to a person's angel you establish in your thinking a harmonious belief about that person.
 - A. That angel is their Higher Self.
 - B. Written words of truth reach the judgement seat of a person.
- II. Sometimes it is more powerful to write to the angel of that person's particular need.

CHAPTER SIX

- I. The seven churches mentioned in Revelation symbolize seven types of people who can best be reached by writing to their Higher Selves.
 - A. The church at Ephesus represents emotional and dramatic people.
 - B. The church of Smyrna represents those people who are lovers of show, beauty and adornment.
 - C. The church at Pergamum represents the grand, wealthy aristocratic type of people.

- D. The church at Thyatira represents the frantic, zealous and quarrelsome type of people.
 - E. The church at Sardis represents the timid and apprehensive type of people.
 - F. The church at Philadelphia represents those people who believe love means outer works only.
 - G. The church of Laodicea represents the unstable and changeable type of people.
- II. Write to your own angel when it seems that your life is filled with defeat or when you are tempted to criticize or condemn yourself.
 - III. Never expect your angel or that of another to honor any requests that might hurt or harm.

CHAPTER SEVEN

- I. Love can affect your indebtedness.
 - A. A thought of debt will produce debt.
 - B. Love will meet every need.
- II. Putting God first financially releases the prospering power of love.
 - A. Always tithe with love.
 - B. Tithing is an act that invokes universal abundance.
